

A Make adjectives from these nouns by adding suitable suffixes from the box.

-ous

-n

-y

-al

1. Australia

Australian

2. health

healthy

3. silver

silvery

4. nation

national

5. danger

dangerous

6. joy

joyous

7. music

musical

8. Asia

Asian

9 Fill in the blanks with the correct pronouns.

1. My name is Sam. I (I/Me) am Indian.
2. My grandparents live in Lucknow. We visit them (them/they) often.
3. Let me (I/me) help you (you/me) carry those books.
Thank you (you/us), but I (I/me) think I (I/me) can manage.
4. Can you (you/we) tell us (us/we) where we (us/we) can find a florist?
5. Priya and Varsha are bringing flowers for the party. They (They/We) will bring them (them/they) in an hour.

Sayed Tan

..... IS ON 10 FEBRUARY.

C Fill in the blanks with this, that, these or those.

1. Is this my tea?
2. Those are not my shoes, these are.
3. That is not my bike. The one over there is mine.
4. This is my friend, Suchitra. That boy standing near the classroom is Michael.
5. These pastries are fresh. Those on the shelf are stale.

Listening and Speaking

• communication

♦ listening for details ♦ sharing a dream

Listen to a passage about dreams and tick (✓) the sentences you hear.

1. Dreams are like magical journeys that take place in our minds while we sleep. ☒
2. In our dreams, we can become anything we want to be. ☒
3. A completely frightening or unpleasant dream is called a nightmare. ☒

4. We also have dreams when we're awake. ☒
5. Maybe you dream of becoming a doctor, a teacher, or an astronaut. ☒
6. Don't just keep dreaming, act on them. ☒
7. You have the power to turn your dreams into reality. ☒

Do you usually remember your dreams after waking up? Share with your classmates one of the happy dreams you can remember.

A Write T for true and F for false for these sentences.

1. It would be pleasant to have your nose between your toes.
2. If your nose were on top of your head, it would annoy you.
3. It would be better if your nose were pasted on some other place.
4. Your nose is located between your eyes and chin.
5. Having your nose in your ear would be a disaster.
6. Sneezing would make your brain cool if your nose were in your ear.

F
.....
T
.....
F
.....
T
.....
T
.....
F
.....